From the Editor's desk..

The Session 2014 – 15 started with multifarious activities in the College.

An Exhibition and Workshop on Rare Manuscripts was organized which provided a golden opportunity to the students to view very rare manuscripts which are rich source of knowledge and cultural heritage.

Com Edufest highlighted many current issues of today's society such as Jan Dhan Yojna, e-World, e-Banking etc.

Celebration of National Unity Day and Run for Unity enabled the students to realize the importance of national integration.

The musical extravaganza by Abhijit Ghoshal was a treat for both the faculty members and the students.

Seminar on Mahilayon per Badhate Atyachaar va Aatmraksha ke Upaye helped the students to know various steps taken by the administration for the safety of women.

Career Counselling and Institution Industry Partnership Cell started functioning and organized Seminars and Workshops which provided a platform to gain information and training for various career opportunities for the students.

Adding glory to the achievements of the College the students of BA and B.Com. excelled in various Inter-Institutional competitions and secured positions.

The College has the privilege of starting three new courses in Computer Application which will help in creating IT friendly atmosphere in the College.

The College is continuously shaping the students according to the need of the changing society.

The Editorial Board has made sincere efforts to cover all activities held. Any omission is regretted.
