During the workshop students prepared projects on tourism. An exhibition on Indian Art and Architecture organized which was inaugurated by Prof. Kumkum Roy, Head, Dept. of Geography, A.U. She appreciated the faculty members for taking initiative to organize the workshop. Total 30 students benefited by the workshop.

e-Content Development

February 5, 2016

e-Content was developed on Himalayavarnanam based on the text Kumarsambhava written by the great Poet Kalidas. An Audio Visual CD was prepared by the Department of Sanskrit with the cooperation of renowned singers of the city and alumni of the College and other editing experts. Resource Persons were :

Shri Vivek Priyadarshan, Music Director and Singer

Mrs. Monali Banerjee, Singer (alumni)

Ms. Pooja Prajapati, Singer (alumni)

Sri Ambar Pandey, Video Editor

Sri Jayant Ghosh, Recording, Editing and Mixing

The CD was formally released by Prof. Hari Dutt Sharma, Former Head, Dept. of Sanskrit recipient of the President Award. An audio-visual presentation of the CD was done. On this occasion a Special Lecture was organized on Sanskrit mein Vigyan on February 5, 2016.

The resource persons were Prof. Hari Dutt Sharma, Former Head, Dept. of Sanskrit, A.U. and Dr. Lalit Kumar Tripathi, Asso. Prof. Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, Ganga Nath Jha Campus, Allahabad. They appreciated the innovative step taken by the Department of Sanskrit in the preparation of the CD. Only few universities in India have implemented this idea of e-content development for teaching – learning and promotion of Sanskrit language. In their deliberation, they explained that the Sanskrit texts are full of scientific knowledge in ancient India.

The programme was attended by a large number of faculty members and students.

A 12-day Workshop on Advance Internet Skills by Mr. Mohd. Saif, a very competent IT trainer. About 25-30 students attended the workshop. The students were given details about working of Internet, usage, internal security setting, online shopping, banking, billing, reservations etc. How to find jobs online, check books etc. They were also taught uses of GPS, back location of devices, how to apply for Aadhar card was also taught. Then how to apply for passport, social networking sites were also shown and outlook configurations discussed. The students were very responsive and satisfied. More than 30 students attended

Jan. 16, 2016

Lecture (Under CPE Phase II)

Career counseling on Career Options for Social Science graduates was conducted by Shri Om Prakash Shukla, Director, Gandhian Academic Sansthan. He motivated the Arts students and said it is much easier for the Arts graduates to join different services such as railways, banks, armed forces, civil services. Only they have to work hard and have diligence and be focused. More than 65 students benefitted.

Jan. 23, 2016

Workshop (Under CPE Phase II)

Career Option of Museology a very enlightening special lecture on Museology as a career option was delivered by Dr. Shree Ranjan Shukla, former Curator, Allahabad Museum.

In the beginning Dr. Shukla threw light on the history of museums in India. Then he explained how this branch is a very upcoming new career option for students of all streams. This career demands interest of student and knowledge of ancient culture, marketing skills, ICT skills and innovative approach to run and maintain museums. More than 60 students benefitted.

Jan. 25, 2016

Workshop (Under CPE Phase II)

Career Option of Fashion Technology as an option was given to the students by onsite learning at the Centre of Fashion Technology, Institute of Professional Studies, A.U.

The students were very methodically introduced to the World of Fashion Technology, its history, the numerous opportunities in this field, its various branches and scope through a short film shown by the Centre Head Ms. Mitali Ghosh with her commentary. Then the students went around the Centre and saw the various stages of designing, draping, cutting, stitching, finishing the various garments and make different accessories. They were taken to their language lab, computer labs and library etc. It was a very new experience and more than 24 students benefitted.

Jan. 29, 2016

Industrial Tour (Under CPE Phase II)

An industrial tour to Baidyanath factory and Parle G factory was organized. 28 students and 4 teachers went to the sites at Naini Industrial area.

At Baidyanath factory the students were taken to the grinding, cooking, tablets making, packaging of Ayurvedic medicines and bottle making sections of the factory. The most remarkable thing was that the process of making these Ayurvedic medicines was totally eco friendly. Rice husk, cow dung cakes were the only fuels used in accordance to the ancient methods of making Ayurvedic products. The students were then given a talk by the Manager about the future and efficacy of Ayurvedic products and the number of openings for career for working in the sector was immense.

The students then went to Parle G factory, where they were first shown a 15-minute film about the history of Parle products and their diverse products. The factory where Parle G biscuits were made was shown. This process was totally mechanized and full proof of any contamination. It was really a very good experience for the students to see the working of a factory.
