From the Editor's desk...

A single step of continuous effort help to reach the goal and excellence in every facet of life. To achieve excellence in teaching- learning research, extension and other extracurricular activities, the faculty members and students of the college are constantly contributing with their best.

For widening the multi-dimensional approach a Faculty Enrichment Programme on "Intellectual Property Rights" was organized, which covered the humanities, social science and legal aspect of IPR.

The Interdisciplinary workshops and Special lectures on Geographical Information System (GIS), Application of SPSS, Demonetization, Indian Society Turning to Digital way of life, added to the indepth knowledge of the particular field and concept.

The college endeavored to implement the directives of the Government on Digital Literacy Campaign (NSAKA). The students participated enthusiastically to motivate and train the public for transaction.

To provide the plate form for skill development and career avenues, the college continuously organizes workshops on subject related to future career options. Pandulipi Vigyan, News Writing and Editing were organized with such objectives.

The students presented a delightful ballet Grahabhivandan in the Annual Function of the College, which was appreciated by one and all. The news coverage of the function was widely circulated online. The Editorial Board has taken sincere efforts to cover all the activities held during January to July 2017 in this volume. Any omission is regretted.
