From the Editors' desk.....

It is said that nothing great or significant can be accomplished in life all alone. The College is continuously achieving its goals and objectives regarding teaching-learning, research, extension and other activities through collective effort of faculty members, students, staff, collaboration and cooperation with academic and non-academic bodies.

College is proactive to compliance the policies and directives of government through interdisciplinary special lectures and workshops. The programmes were focused towards the challenges and needs of the society such as environmental conservation and other socio-economic and political issues. An Eco-Club has been formed for swachhata Abhiyan.

Skill oriented and Value added programmes are the prime concern of the college to enhance the quality of teaching learning and potential in students.

To empower the girl students college always keep watch to resolve their problems through organising workshops, counselling sessions, self defence training etc. to make them self-reliant.

The Editorial Board has made sincere efforts to cover all the activities held during the period of this volume. Any omission is regretted.
