EDITORIAL

The College is constantly treading on the path of higher goals through its multifarious activities regarding teaching-learning research and extension activities. A large number of institutional and inter-institutional programmes and competitions were organized during the session.

A Seminar on ‘Effective implementation of Vision and Mission using ICT in Academic Institution’ was organized keeping in mind the importance of ICT in teaching and learning for quality enhancement in higher education.

Special lecture on Waste Management, “Hot and Smart Cities: Urban Heat Risk and Resilience in India” by Dr. Komali Yenneti were organized which caters to the need of spreading awareness regarding conservation of environment.

Digital launch of vocal music presentation on Youtube by two faculty members is another contribution in the field of digitization. The resonance of music not only vibrate in the college campus but it is spread in the city and in the other states as well.

Governor’s Gold medal has been conferred to Major Dr. Archana Paul, of our institution for commendable service to NCC, which adds another feather in the cap of College achievements.

*The presentation of Khirkí in the Annual function by the students was appreciated by one and all.*

The editorial Board has taken sincere efforts to cover all the activities held during January to June 2019 in this volume. Any omission is regretted.
